

Co-op Coalition Survey: Roof Contractors

Thanks to those managers who took the time to respond to this survey. I know we did a similar survey 2 months ago in June, but it was nice to see some additional responses this time from our members who were unable to provide recommendations then. Following is the original question and the table of responses.

Our Co-op is eagerly in search of reliable, professional DC licensed roofing contractors. Can anyone in the Coalition make a recommendation based on satisfactory experiences?

We will share the results early the following week. Thanks for helping one another!
